A group of men are seated at a long table covered with a red cloth. The table is decorated with a bouquet of white flowers. The men are dressed in light-colored shirts and are looking towards the stage. One man on the far left is holding a microphone to his mouth, possibly speaking or about to speak. The table has several papers and a mobile phone on it.

Three women in sarees are standing at a wooden podium. The woman on the left is wearing a white saree with a yellow border and is speaking into a microphone. The woman in the middle is wearing a yellow saree with a white border. The woman on the right is wearing a white saree with an orange border. They are all looking towards the audience.
