

Assam gets glossary on medicinal plants

GUWAHATI

A forest officer in Assam has come out with a unique book that has recorded close to 1,400 medicinal and aromatic plant species as well as wild mushrooms that are found in the State. Jatindra Sharma's two-volume book, based on 15 years of research, also records a few species of plants that are yet to be named. IANS