

KAU efforts for green, plastic-free campuses

The Hindu 04-06-2018-

STAFF REPORTER

THRISSUR

P-02

Extensive planting operations to popularise urban greenery, declaration of all campuses as plastic-free zones, and following Green Protocol in all activities are the main programmes chalked out by the Kerala Agricultural University (KAU) to mark the World Environment Day celebrations on June 5.

Planting operations in the university will be inaugurated by Vice Chancellor R. Chandrababu on the main campus.

Afforestation activities will be simultaneously undertaken in all KAU institutions spread across the State.