A woman in a green and gold saree is speaking at a wooden podium with a microphone.

Five men are seated in a row on chairs. From left to right: a man in a maroon shirt and light trousers, a man in a light blue shirt, a man in a white striped shirt, and a man in a light blue shirt. A fifth man is partially visible in the foreground, seen from the back, wearing a blue and white striped shirt. They are all looking towards the speaker.

A table with a red cloth holds several documents, a water bottle, and a small cup.
